Jackson, Oct. 26.

In a rear end automobile collision, about one mile east of Jackson, Sunday afternoon, two cars loaded with passengers were hurled in the ditch, and a number of the occupants seriously hurt.

The accident was caused by the driver of the rear car losing control of his machine as he was in the act of passing the car ahead of him.

The car in front was driven by John Gladish of Burfordville, who was accompanied by his wife and three other passengers, and the car that dashed into him was driven by J. W. Pitman of Millerville, who was accompanied by Mrs. Pitman.

The Gladish machine had given all the passing space possible to the approaching car, and when it tore into his rear wheel the machine was lifted almost bodily and thrown into a telegraph pole which prevented the car turning completely over. The passengers were thrown out and all were injured to some extent. The Pitman car ran ahead some distance and while the driver was looking back to see what damage had been done, his machine plunged headlong over a bank on the opposite side of the road. Pitman and his wife were thrown out, but neither was seriously hurt.

Man Sent to Assassinate Him Is

El Paso, Tex., Oct. 27—An attempt has been made to assassinate Gen. Francisco Villa by an agent said to have been commissioned and paid by Gen. Pablo Gonzales, a staunch supporter of Gen. Carranza, said a message sent the Associated Press today by Luis Aguirre Benavides, Gen. Villa's first secretary.

The would-be assassin, Francisco I. Mugla, was executed after making a confession before George C. Carothers, the American Consular Agent.

Mugla was apprehended at Guadalupe, where Villa with his troops has been awaiting the outcome of the Agnascientes conference. The official report stated that the prisoner just prior to his execution told the Villa officials, in the presence of Carothers, he had been paid a large sum of money by Gen. Gonzales at Mexico City.

"Mr. Consul, please advise your Government and my family that I died a traitor," Mugla was quoted as having said.

Mugla was an Argentine subject. It was he who assassinated a German consular official in Mexico some years ago.

PREACHER KILLS SELF.

Former Dexter Pastor Ends Life in Marshfield, Mo.

Marshfield, Mo., Oct. 27—The Rev. Walter M. Rudolph, pastor of the Baptist church here, killed himself yesterday afternoon by drinking carbolic acid, after he had written a 12-page letter, addressed to the public in which he expressed his disgust over the evils of the world. He said he was tired of living. He left another note addressed to Dr. J. Ferguson of Springfield, Mo.

The pastor bought the poison at a drug store, walked two miles east of Marshfield, and drank it while a Frisco freight train was passing. The train was stopped and the minister was placed in the caboose by members of the crew. He died before the train reached Marshfield.

The Rev. Mr. Rudolph came to Marshfield from Dexter, Mo., only three months ago and was well liked by his new congregation. He had been in a despondent mood for several days and had remarked to several persons that he was contemplating ending his life, but none took his threats seriously.

He was 40 years old and is survived by a widow and four children.

PRESIDENT ASKS NATION TO GIVE THANKS NOV. 26

European War Has Disciplined This Nation, He Says In Proclamation.

TWO AMERICAS NOW BOUND IN FRIENDSHIP

Opening of Panama Canal Gives Country New Channels To Prosperity, He Says.

Washington, Oct. 28—President Wilson issued a proclamation designating Thursday, Nov. 26 as Thanksgiving day.

The President's proclamation, which refers to the fact that the United States is at peace while much of the rest of the world is at war, follows:

"It has long been the honored custom of our people to turn in the fruitful autumn of the year in praise and thanksgiving to Almighty God for his many blessings and mercies to us as a nation. The year that is now drawing to a close since we last observed our day of national thanksgiving, has been while a year of discipline because of the mighty forces of war and of change which has disturbed the world, also a year of special blessing for us.

"It has been vouchsafed to us to remain at peace, with honor, and in some part to succor the suffering and supply the needs of those who are in want. We have been privileged by our own peace and self-control in some degree to steady the counsels and to shape the hopes and purposes of a day of fear and distress.

"Our people have looked upon their own life as a nation with a deeper comprehension, a fuller realization of their responsibilities as well as of their blessings and a keener sense of the moral and practical significance of what their part among the nations of the world may come to be.

"The hurtful effects of foreign war in their own industrial and commercial affairs have made them feel the more fully and see the more clearly their interdependence upon one another and has stirred them to a helpful co-operation such as they have seldom practiced before.

"They have been quickened by a great moral stimulation. Their unmistakable ardor for peace, their earnest pity and disinterested sympathy for those who are suffering, their readiness to help and to think of the needs of others, has revealed them to themselves as well as to the world.

"Our crops will feed all who need food; the self-possession of our people, amidst the most serious anxieties and difficulties and the steadiness and resourcefulness of our business men will serve other nations as well as our own.

"The business of the country has been supplied with instrumentalities; and the commerce of the world with new channels of trade and intercourse. The Panama Canal has been opened to the commerce of the nations. The two continents of America have been bound in closer ties of friendship. New instrumentalities of international trade have been created, which will be also new instrumentalities of acquaintance, intercourse and mutual service. Never before have the people of the United States been so situated for their own advantage or the advantage of their neighbors or so equipped to serve themselves and mankind.

"Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, do hereby designate Thursday, the twenty-sixth of November next, as a day of Thanksgiving and prayer, and invite the people throughout the land to cease from their wonted occupations and in their several homes and places of worship render thanks to Almighty God.

"In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done at the City of Washington, this twenty-eighth day of October, in the year of our Lord, One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fourteen, and of the independence of the United States of America, the one hundred and thirty-ninth.

"WOODROW WILSON, By the President.

"ROBERT LANSING, Acting Secretary of State."

SIX WAX LADIES WRECKED BY BOYS

Caldwell-Sherman Models Are Stoned To Bits By Urchins—Arrest Asked.

The police have been asked to arrest several boys who entered the hull of the Caldwell-Sherman store yesterday and demolished six wax figures that had been left temporarily in the building.

From evidences left by the boys, the urchins apparently tested their pitching abilities on the models. Stones, about the size of base balls, were found scattered over the rear of the building and strewn among them were bits of the wax figures. One of the models was valued at $125 and the other five cost between $75 and $100 each.

"I suppose the miscreants entered the building through the front door. As workmen have been cleaning up the interior of the structure, preparatory to rebuilding it, I have not taken much pains to prevent trespassing. They stood in the show windows and consequently were not damaged during the fire. When we removed the goods, I thought I would leave the models there until I could make room at our temporary quarters. I would value the collection at about $500."

It is believed the boys entered the building and discovered the figures, then decided to test themselves as twirlers. Patrolman Beeve, who visited the scene yesterday, is of the opinion that the boys stood the figures then shattered them with stones.

One of the models, and considered the best looking of the six dumb ladies (get that?), appeared as if she might have been bombed by a Krupp gun. A stone struck her just under the chin and spoiled the smile which formerly made the show window of the Caldwell-Sherman look pleasant.

"I will pay a liberal reward for the arrest of the parties who committed the offense," said Mr. Caldwell last night. I have a clew which I believe will work out successfully, and the police are co-operating with me.
